County Tavernkeepers Fined $500 Each

Minors Tell Sordid Story Of Beer Bout

Buy Intoxicants With No Questions Asked by Barkeeps

Three Lee county tavernkeepers were each fined $500 and costs Monday by Judge Grover Gehant in Lee county court, after pleading guilty to charges of selling intoxicating beverages to minors.

William C. Rabal, Sublette, Roodie Mini, Sublette, and Marvin M. Oester, Walton, were arrested yesterday by John Stouffer, chief deputy sheriff, and given an immediate hearing in county court.

Warrants were issued for their arrest shortly after noon when information was filed in the office of Sterling Schrock, county clerk, by State's Attorney James Bales. Rabal and Mini were both charged in the information with selling intoxicants Saturday to Matthew McCaffrey, 17, of near Amboy. Rabal sold him six cans of beer and Mini, a bottle of whiskey.

Sold 34 Cans

The third defendant, Oester, was charged with having sold a case and a half of beer, 34 cans, to James Harold Grady, 19, Amboy, Saturday.

In each instance, the purchasers were minors, under 21, and such sales violated Illinois statutes forbidding sales to minors.

Violation of the liquor statute was discovered Saturday night when Raymond Keith Harrison, 16, of near Amboy, was found in a drunken stupor in his father's car by a Lee county farmer.

The car was parked in the farmer's yard. Sheriff Charles Redebaugh was called after the farmer had investigated and found the youth unconscious in the car, windows shut, motor running.

According to testimony, the youth couldn't remember how he got there or what happened two hours previous to the time he woke up in the county jail.

Tells Story

Harrison, an Amboy high school junior, testified that earlier Saturday evening, he took his father's car and picked up McCaffrey and later Jack Fisher at Amboy. From there, they went to Sublette and made purchases at Mini's and Rabal's.

He further testified that he drank whiskey and beer during the eight to ten minute drive back to Amboy. By the time the trio reached Blackburn's farm, near Amboy, where a party was under way, all of the whiskey and half of the beer was consumed in about 20 minutes.

After that, Harrison testified, he drove his companions to Walton—although he was not sure. He didn't remember who drove.

They left Walton about 9:30 p. m., he thought, but couldn't remember. In fact, he didn't remember anything from that time until he landed in the county jail. Harrison is an honor student at Amboy high.

Grady Testifies

It was learned from the testimony of 19-year-old Grady that Harrison did not drive from Walton.

Adm. Mountbatten Will Head NATO Naval Forces

PARIS—(AP)—British Adm. Earl Mountbatten has been named commander in chief of all but the American part of NATO's naval forces in the Mediterranean, with maintenance of sea and air communications between Gibraltar and Suez as his No. 1 assignment.

The powerful Naples-based U. S. Sixth Fleet, including heavy carriers and amphibious forces, remains independent as an Allied striking force under Adm. Robert B. Carney for support of land operations in Southern Europe. Both Mountbatten and Carney will report directly to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme Allied commander.

The appointment and a compromise between British and American military leaders that preceded it capped a long wrangle be-

Arrest Youth After Prank Involving Car

Police Seek Source Of Beer Possessed By 16-Year-Old Boy

What may have started as a prank ended in the arrest of John Starkey, 16, of 114 E. Seventh st., on charges of tampering with a motor vehicle.

Starkey was arrested early this morning by Dixon Police Officers Camery and Van Meter on a complaint signed by Harold Goley, Oregon.

Goley charged that the 16-year-old boy tore the front license plate off his car which was parked in front of the Royal Palms tap, 83 Galena av.

According to the police, Starkey and other youths were in possession of about six cans of beer around the time the plate was removed.

It hasn't been determined as yet just where the beer was purchased. Starkey was confined since in the city jail where he awaits a hearing before a justice of the peace.

The other boys in Starkey's company were not named in the complaint. Justice of the Peace Sterling Schrock issued a state warrant for the arrest of Starkey since tampering with a motor vehicle is a state offense.

In the event Starkey pleads guilty, according to the police, he can be bound over for a hearing in county court.

This is the second incident in Lee county since Friday where intoxicating beverages were named as contributing factors in the delinquency of minors.

Attempts will be made to determine the place where the beer was obtained. Three tavern owners were fined $300 and costs in Lee county court Monday for selling to minors.

Dixon Boy, Struck By Auto, Leaves Hospital Monday

Six-year-old David Adams, R.R. 4, Dixon, landed in the K&B hospital yesterday for a short stay after he was hit by a car operated by Douglas R. Pitzer, Franklin Grove.

The accident occurred Monday at 3 p. m. as young Adams and a friend were returning home from school.

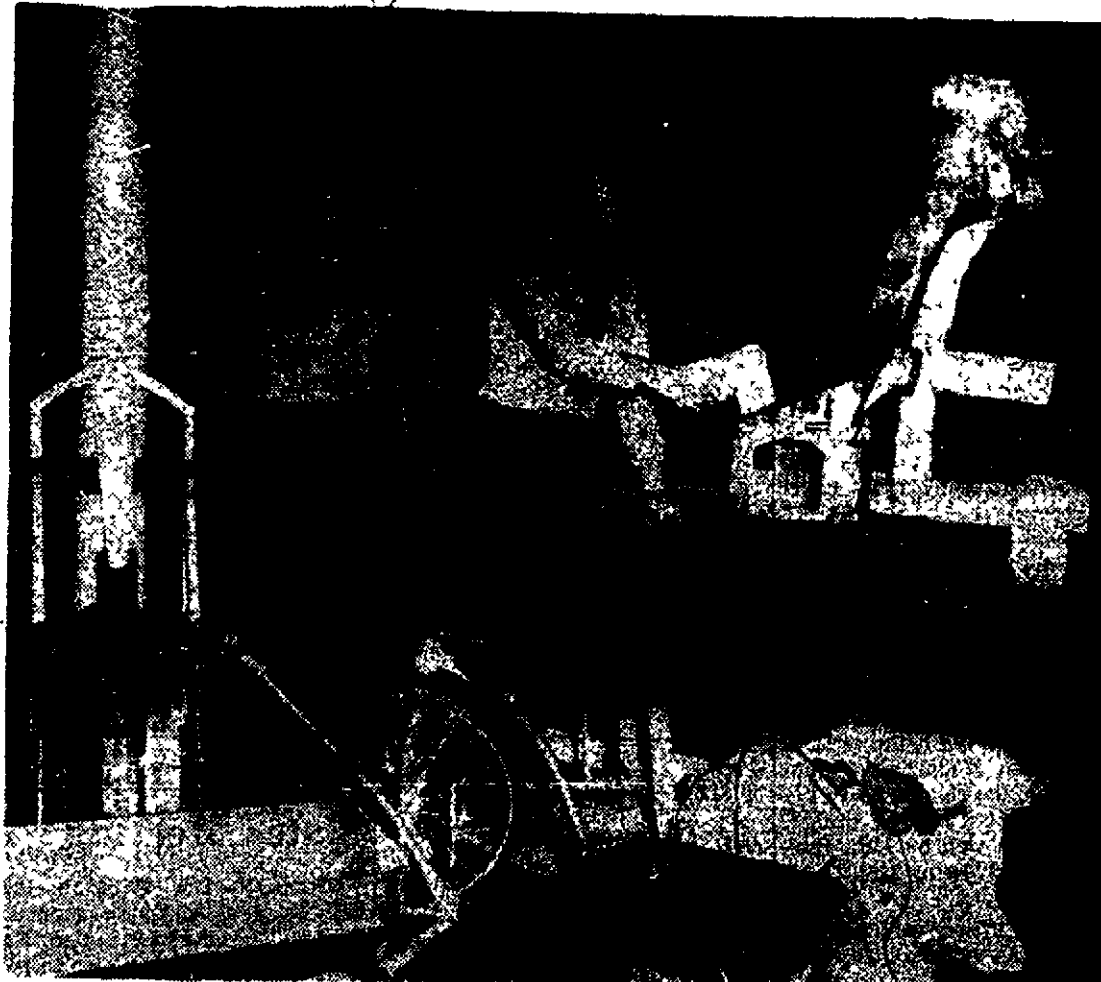

According to David's mother, Adams was "playfully" pushed off the sidewalk into the street. Before he knew it a car operated by Pitzer, hit him on the left side.

Mr. Edward Murphy, Dixon, reported that there were no broken bones, that the boy was severely bruised.

When the accident happened, Pitzer immediately got in touch with David's parents who took him to the hospital. He was later taken to Dr. Murphy's for X-rays. Pitzer accompanied the parents. The boy was returned home last evening.

Mrs. Adams said that the boys were merely "fooling around" when the incident took place and that the youngster who pushed David didn't see the car coming.

Santa Says: 'Well Done, Dixon Firemen!'

A HANDSHAKE AND WORDS of congratulations were extended Dixon firemen today by Santa Claus during his annual inspection of repairs firemen are making to toys donated in the Goodfellows drive. Here, accepting Santa's praise in behalf of the two fire departments are Ralph Slonecker, left, city fireman, and Rural Chief Alvin Sheeley. Santa will deliver the repaired toys to children in the county who, without the thoughtfulness of Goodfellow contributors, would not know the joys of receiving Christmas presents. Santa issued a reminder that anybody can be a Goodfellow by donating cash, toys or clothing, all urgently needed if all Lee county children, not just those whose parents can "afford" a merry Christmas, are not to be deprived of presents Dec. 25.

Let Us Help Others—NOW!

Goodfellows, this is it! Christmas is upon us and scores of wistful little boys and girls will have a chill in their hearts on Christmas morning if you do not do something about it.

On the other hand, if you help to make one youngster or several of them happy on Christmas day you will have a much nicer Christmas day yourself.

So, if you plan to take part in the Goodfellow campaign this year you must get busy and do so at once. Send your check to the Goodfellow Club, care of the Evening Telegraph. The young ladies of the Wa Tan Ye club will see that your money is used wisely and none of it is wasted.

A lot of money is needed because many of these little folk must be clothed as well as fed if they are to enjoy the toys and things they hope to get on Christmas day. It takes a lot of money to buy the underwear, the over-shoes, shoes, socks, jackets, caps, mittens, etc.; that many of them need. The food baskets are expensive, as you well know when you buy groceries.

Time is running out fast and the task is a large one, so help expedite the Christmas campaign by getting your donations in as soon as possible.

Auto Rolls 125 Feet; Driver Escapes Unhurt

OREGON—Warren B. Long, Leaf River, escaped with minor cuts and bruises when his auto rolled about 125 feet into a field after skidding out of control north of Oregon last night.

Dallas Twigg, Ogle county chief deputy sheriff, said the auto rolled over five or six times about midnight along Rt. 2 a short way south of the Winnebago county line. Long had been traveling south.

Firemen Dash One Block to Minor Blaze

A short in a fluorescent light fixture sent city firemen scurrying one block from the station to Arlene's Juvenile shop, 123 Galena av., Monday afternoon.

Firemen arrived at the scene in a fast 100 yard dash in their shiny fire engine to the corner of Second street and Galena avenue to handle one of the fastest fires of their career.

When they raced in the juvenile shop, dressed for the worst, they found a smoking fluorescent fixture. There was no damage except to the light.

However, rules called for a complete investigation of the shop as to stock, insurance, and circumstance of the fire, according to Fire Chief Gail Keyser.

Search For Missing Tots Is Continuing

NAPERVILLE, Ill.—Searchers hope to learn today whether two missing children were drowned in Naperville quarry that has been almost completely drained by volunteer pumpers.

The children, Edward Rosenstiel, 5, and Jean Petersen, 6, disappeared Dec. 7 while playing near their homes, half a block from the quarry.

Portable pumps were brought to the water's edge Dec. 9 to drain the 80 to 90 million gallons of water that searchers believed might be covering the bodies of the youngsters.

The drainage operation was expected to be completed today. A thorough search will then be made of the muddy, litter-cluttered quarry floor.

Eldena Class to Meet on Thursday

ELDENA—Special)—The Ladies class of the Eldena EUB church will hold a scramble dinner and gift exchange in the home of Mrs. Carlton Gusse Thursday. During the afternoon there will be an election of officers and members will assemble clothing for shipment to a Japanese family.

Dixon Woman Scalded by Wash Water

Mrs. Lloyd Mason, 23, of 109 W. Graham st., was severely scalded yesterday afternoon when she spilled a steaming boiler of water on herself while doing laundry.

Mrs. Mason was heating water in the basement of her home when the accident happened.

She attempted to carry a boiler of scalding hot water from the basement heating unit to her wash-tubs when she lost her grip on the boiler's handle.

Hot water spilled over her left side causing her to drop the boiler. She slipped and fell into the heated water and suffered scattered, but extensive scalding to her left side.

Her left arm, hip, and leg got the worst of the second degree burns which caused a loss of skin.

Mrs. Mason managed to rush to the home of her neighbor, Mrs. Jay Cass, who called the doctor and an ambulance, and gave her first aid.

City Fire Chief Gail Keyser and Fireman Chester Stangeland rushed to the scene to aid in getting her to the K&B hospital.

Mrs. Mason was released this morning from the hospital in good condition.

To Meet in Dixon

A business and luncheon meeting of the Rock River Life Underwriters association will be held at 12:30 p. m. Wednesday, at Rainbow Inn, it was announced today by Leonard Peterson, Sterling, association president.

Youth, Drug Addict, Tells How He Slew Woman Artist

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—A 16-year-old high school student told police today he fatally stabbed artist Ida C. MacKeown, 67, when she threatened to tell officers he was a marijuana user.

Jailed and booked on suspicion of murder was Donald S. Crosby.

Detective Sergeants Paul Walk and Tony Maguire said the slim youth gave an oral confession and led them to a trash can where they found a knife with a four-inch blade.

Stabbed 35 Times

Mrs. MacKeown's body, punctured by 35 stab wounds was discovered Monday by neighbors in her fashionable studio-home at nearby La Jolla. The nationally noted miniature portrait painter had been at work on a picture of a child. Coroner A. E. Gallagher said she was killed Saturday.

"I didn't know if she was dead or not, but when I left I hoped she was so she couldn't identify me," Walk quoted the youth.

Neighbors who had noted a teenager standing on the MacKeown porch Saturday gave police a description. Officers checked their list of known juvenile delinquents. Then they arrested Crosby who had been paroled from a correctional institution where he was sent after a burglary conviction in 1950.

Walk said Crosby gave the following version of events:

He was soliciting yard work in the La Jolla neighborhood near the home of his father although he lives with his mother in East San Diego, the couple having separated.

While talking with Mrs. MacKeown inside her house, he took a cigarette out of his pocket and a marijuana cigarette dropped out onto the floor.

Mrs. MacKeown threatened to call police.

"I slapped her and when she began screaming I pulled out my knife. Then I beat her over the head with my fist."

Crosby said he recalled plunging the knife into the woman, but didn't remember how many times.

Walk said Crosby wasn't able to say how Mrs. MacKeown could recognize the marijuana cigarette. However, San Diego newspapers have been conducting educational campaigns aimed against the sale and use of the narcotic.

The 6-foot, 160-pound youth said he had been a marijuana user since leaving the correctional institution, Walk asserted.

Leaders in Far East See Possibility

Reds 'Suckers' for Amphibious Attack, Say War Strategists

TOKYO—(AP)—President-elect Eisenhower's conclusion that the Communists can be impressed "only by deeds" was interpreted by Allied military sources in Japan and Korea that the UN will be taking the offensive in Korea.

Before his visit to Korea, military leaders planned to inform Eisenhower that the only hope for an end to the Korean conflict was a military one.

Eisenhower's statement on arriving in New York seemed to bear out the belief that as commander in chief of United States armed forces he would order an end to the year-old stalemate.

"... We face an enemy we cannot hope to impress by words, however eloquent, but only by deeds — executed under circumstances of our own choosing."

Wraps Off

In those 24 words, Eisenhower not only seemed to say he would take the wraps off Gen. Mark Clark's Far East Command, but also that the armistice talks could result in nothing more than wasted words and time.

One year ago last month, when a cease-fire line was agreed upon at Panmunjom, quiet settled over the cold Korean front. In the past 13 months that quiet has erupted frequently in savage, if small-scale fighting.

The battle line has changed very little and neither side has elected to attack in an effort to force a breakthrough. While Clark and Gen. James A. Van Fleet, his Korean commander, have been under orders only to hold, the Communists have made the most of the opportunity to build up in depth.

It is doubtful now if Clark has enough troops to smash through the 700,000 Communist soldiers facing him.

Must Have Way

Therefore Eisenhower must have a way in mind to build up the Eighth Army to a real striking force.

Clark has 10 American divisions, counting two in Japan, 14 South Korean divisions, two air forces and the U. S. Seventh Fleet.

If that force were bolstered by three or four divisions from Nationalist China and perhaps many additional thousands more South Korean troops still in training, Clark conceivably could take the offensive.

Where would he strike? It is not revealing classified information to say that the Communists are suckers for a body punch.

The 1st Marine division landing at Inchon caught them flat-footed. That amphibious assault coincided with an Allied breakout from the perilous Pusan perimeter, far to the Southwest. Thousands of North Korean Reds, trapped between the two Allied forces, broke and fled.

The U. S. Eighth Army went all-out in pursuit and chased the Reds right to the Yalu River boundary of Manchuria. Then the Chinese Communists intervened. The fight has surged back and forth across the 38th parallel, then settled into its present stalemate.

Clark took Amno with power and it is doubtful if he'd try a landing in Korea unless he had the ships to keep pouring men on the beach once the attack started.

Once a beachhead was secured, the next move would be to hammer a line right across the peninsula and slam the back door on the Communists massed along the front. Cutting their supply lines.

News of the Rock River Grange

By BOB TOURILLLOTT

The Rock River Grange held a scramble, supper and Christmas party at the Loveland Community house recently. With goose, duck, chicken and meat loaf being on the menu, everyone went away from the supper table with just a little more than that satisfied feeling.

When it was time for dessert a birthday cake was presented and two birthdays were celebrated; Lola Laughlin was 4 years old and Ronald Ortgiesen was 9.

Following the supper the master of the Subordinate Grange, Robert Tourilllott, and the master of the Juveniles, Marvin Kunde, both gave a few words of welcome. The Juveniles then presented a program under the direction of their patron, Charles Dieterle.

There was a welcome by Terry Dieterle, song by the entire group, recitation by Patricia Tourilllott, a baton twirling exhibition by Carol Buckaloo and Beverly Bollman and a song by Norma Tourilllott. Patricia Tourilllott and David Woessner, accompanied by Marion Woessner on the piano.

A skit "The Mysterious Stranger" was then presented. Those taking part in it were Neil Buckaloo, Marion Woessner, Beverly Bollman, Jimmy Newcomer, Carol Buckaloo, Larry Newcomer and Lloyd Bollman.

Following the skit was a vocal solo by Ronald Ortgiesen, a piano solo by Larry Newcomer and vocal solos by Ronald Greenfield, Jimmy Newcomer and a piano solo by Loren Jacquet.

Mrs. George Pitzer then entertained with a few piano selections and the entire group sang several songs. At this time Santa Claus put in an appearance and left gifts for all the children. With LaNore Ortgiesen playing a march, the entire group marched around the room and made donations which were to be forwarded to the Goodfellows. A total of $11 was received.

Later in the evening several dance exhibitions were presented by members of Betty Peckham's

Rural Youth Schedules Programs for 6 Months

AMBOY—The Lee County Rural Youth officers have set up a six-month program for meetings to be held from December through June.

The six-month program was outlined at a meeting presided over by Dick Lohse, Harmon, with Helen Adams, Dixon; Ivan Adams, Dixon; Ronald Couderman, Harmon; June Pilgrim and Arthur W. Seeds, both of Amboy, attending. Miss Pilgrim and Seeds are county youth advisers.

In December the group plans to go to the Lee County nursing home and sing Christmas carols.

A trip through a Lee county business establishment is planned for January. As yet the exact place has not been decided.

A public square dance is scheduled for Jan. 24 in the Lee county Farm Bureau auditorium. "Nig" Halladay, Rockford, will furnish the calls and music.

A valentine party in February, another square dance in April, a party for all high school seniors in May and a hay ride and wiener roast in June highlight the rest of the six-month schedule.

All Lee county young people may attend the next meeting, to be held Dec. 18 at 8 p.m. at the Lee County Farm Bureau building, Amboy.

School of Dancing.

Due to many conflicts the date for the installation of officers for the Rock River Grange has been changed. It will now be held on Thursday, Jan. 15, instead of the 13. R. D. Dale and his team from the Palmyra Grange will still be in charge of the installation.

Also keep the date for the Lee-Salle Pomona installation in mind. It is Dec. 23 at Dixon.

The annual officers conference will be held in Dixon this year. It will be Wednesday, Jan. 7, at the Loveland Community House. Make your plans now to attend.

OREGON—A musical program was presented at a meeting of the Blackhawk Grange Friday night. The men of the Grange were in charge of the program with Fred Loos as chairman.

Wayne Hughes and Stephen Curtis presented several duets, the Presbyterian Men's quartet sang, Mrs. Harold Long and Louise Middekauft played piano solos and there was group singing by the members.

The Christmas party for this Friday night was planned. Each family is to bring either apples or popcorn balls. Men, women and children will participate in a gift exchange.

Installation of the officers of Blackhawk Grange, both subordinate and juvenile, will be held Jan. 2. It will be an open meeting, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Niffenberger, Marengo, will have charge of the installation. Niffenberger is the state overseer.

Foreign Travel Arranged for Rural Youth

AMBOY—Plans are now being formulated for the 1953 International Farm Youth Exchange program. IFYE is a program in which farm youth from all parts of the world travel to foreign countries and learn more about the people and the characteristics of the country.

All Lee county young people between 20 and 30 years of age are eligible to apply. Applications, which are available at the Lee County Farm Bureau office, must be filled out and submitted to the IFYE committee at Urbana.

All applications are due Dec. 22. According to Arthur Seeds, county youth adviser, 1953 plans include a total of 140 outbound United States delegates and 145 incoming delegates.

A special project included in the above involves sending 10 delegates to India-Pakistan and receiving 25 in return.

Total cost for each delegate is $800, of which $300 is to be raised by the county from which the delegate is selected and $500 from other sources, including other countries.

I now have one copy of a new University of Illinois bulletin, No. 567, "Space Design for Household Storage." This will be distributed at a below-cost basis of $1.25 each.

You can secure this bulletin by sending a check or money order payable to the University of Illinois Information office, Mumford hall, Urbana. If you would like to look this publication over you may do so, by stopping in at my office.

During the past year the soil lab made over 17,000 individual tests. Were some of these yours? If you haven't had a recent test better get ready for next spring.

Feed is expensive—litter. Don't add manure to the built-up litter in your hen house. Never fill hoppers more than one-half to two-thirds full. Then it's not so easy for the hens to bill the feed over the sides of the hopper.

Many washing machine motors are burned out during the winter because the machine is left on a cold back porch. Because the oil thickens in the gear box or moisture condenses in the gear box, it is sometimes impossible for the motor to start the mechanism.

To avoid this difficult change the oil in the washing machine gear box to winter grade, and store the machine in a warm room two to four hours before using.

Don't burn the Christmas tree. Cut off the branches and use them to mulch the roses, the herbaceous perennials and the bulb beds. The branches are light and tend to keep other heavier mulches from smothering the plants.

Forest tree-planting stock available from the state nurseries at Topeka and Anna for planting next spring now includes:

More than 50,000 ash, black locust, cottonwood, bald cypress, jack pine, red cedar, red pine, Scotch pine, shortleaf pine, Virginia pine, white pine, pitch pine (all seedlings) and red pine 3 year old transplants.

Less than 50,000 Osage orange (hedge), red gum, red oak, sycamore white oak, black walnuts and seedlings and loblolly pine (all seedlings).

START CHICKS EARLY
Shifts in the egg marketing picture in the past few years make it more important than ever to get chicks started early in the year.

University of Illinois specialists advise starting chicks in January rather than in April.

See Near-Record Soybean Crop

URBANA — This year soybean growers in this country and in the world produced what will probably prove to be their second largest crop on record, estimated at 650 million bushels.

The all-time record year for world production was 1950, with an estimated 671.7 million bushels.

Next to the U.S., China proper is the leading soybean country, with Manchuria third.

RAPID GROWTH OF SOIL CONSERVATION districts is shown by the chart and 1952 map above. One farmer or rancher out of every five in the United States is now developing or carrying out a soil and water conservation plan as a cooperator with one of the nearly 2,500 locally organized and managed soil conservation districts. Districts now include 84 per cent of the nation's farm and ranch land.

More Phosphate Needed in Soils

URBANA—More Illinois land is deficient in phosphate than in either limestone or potash, report A.

Soil-testing records for 1951 indicate that 68 per cent of Illinois soils lacked adequate phosphate, 43 per cent lacked lime and 40 per cent lacked potash.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Keep It Simple for Bridge Novice

By OSWALD JACOBY

The ideal book on bridge for beginners shouldn't make the mistake of teaching them all the tricks. Maybe that's why my friend and associate, Freddie Sheinwald, keeps things simple and light in his brand new "First Book of Bridge," written for teen-age boys and girls.

In today's hand, the spade and heart suits are taken from his book. He points out that South can make two spade tricks by leading the queen of spades from dummy and letting it ride for a finesse.

If East makes the mistake of covering the queen of spades with the king, South wins with the ace and then returns a spade to finesse dummy's nine. This gives South three spade tricks instead of only two.

East should play low on the first spade, allowing dummy's queen to win the trick. If declarer then continues by leading the jack of spades, East correctly plays the king. This limits South to two spade tricks.

The situation is just the reverse in hearts. Declarer leads the queen of hearts from dummy, and this time East must play his king. This limits South to two heart tricks. If East failed to cover, the queen of hearts would win, and declarer could then continue by finessing the jack of hearts.

Sheinwald explains all of this in the simplest language, but he doesn't tell the full story of what happened when today's hand was played. West led the queen of clubs, and Sheinwald, who was playing the South hand, saw at a glance that he might be limited to two tricks in each suit if he simply played "according to the book."

To avoid this fate he played a low club from dummy and dropped the six of clubs from his own hand.

This false card made it appear that East held the deuce of clubs and that the three of clubs was the beginning of an encouraging signal. West fell for the swindle by leading the eight of clubs next, thus giving declarer three club tricks. This was enough to assure the contract.

CARD SENSE
Q—The bidding has been:
North East South West
1 Heart Pass 1 Spade Pass
2 Spades Pass ?
You, South, hold: Spades K-Q-7-3-2, Hearts 3-2, Diamonds A-Q-4, Clubs K-J-8. What do you do?
A—Bid three no-trump. You have a well-distributed 13 points in high cards, and this bid offers your partner his choice between game in spades and game in no-trump.

TODAY'S QUESTION
The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades K-J-7-3, Hearts K-8-4, Diamonds K-8-5-3, Clubs 3-2. What do you do?

HOLLYWOOD — Exclusively Yours: "I'm just now beginning to have some sort of feeling about making pictures. With the four that came before 'Young Bess,' I had gotten to such a pitch of frustration that I didn't care. I didn't know what they would turn out like. I was numb!"

Jean Simmons looking back at the quartet of films she made for Howard Hughes in pell-mell fashion and pinching herself on her luck in landing the role of Spencer Tracy's daughter in "Years Ago." More co-starring pictures with hubby Stewart Granger, who played Thomas Seymour to her Queen Elizabeth in "Young Bess?" "I hope so," said gorgeous Jean. "He sweated over my scenes more than I did."

Producer Arch Oboler was thanking a movie critic for saying kind words about his first "debut," "Bwana Devil."
"Oh," said the critic, "don't dimension it."

There's a surprising payoff to that Los Angeles theater recently displaying a marquee sign, "We're Tired of TV. Too. No Commercials Here." A new marquee sign reads, "CLOSED."

That recent 32-day, 54-shot personal-appearance tour by Roy Rogers and Dale Evans grossed $1,077,480. Trigger's the only one who's sorry it ain't hay.

WARM CHRISTMAS
Bing Crosby and Rosemary Clooney will end up in each other's arms in Paramount's "White Christmas," while Fred Astaire will ditto in the final reel. . . . Although Peggy Dow is on suspension at U-H her name still appears on the studio's contract list. What's more, it's being said that Peggy will have to serve out her full contract time if she ever returns to Hollywood. She's in Texas with a millionaire husband.

Patrice Munsel, the operatic lark, is waiting that she didn't deserve the lauding for temperament given her by the British press when she starred for Sam Spiegel in "Melba" in London. Blames it on a misunderstanding.

Judy Holliday's under doctor's orders to slim down from the hefty she put on in her first real-life mama role. Tips the scales at over 150 pounds.

Jane Wyman's out to cash in on it now that she's a full-fledged lark. There's a singing date at the London Palladium, plus as many nitery stints as she wants to accept. Hubby Freddy Karger will go along as Jane's music arranger.

Dialog not in the script on the set of the new Dean Martin-Jerry Lewis film, "The Caddy":
Jerry, watching Dean being photographed in a close-up: "Maybe this picture should be billed as 'Dean Martin and Helper.'"

Jerry sheepishly asking, "I'm silly?" and Dean's retort, "Yes, thank God."

Placid Director Norman Taurog, ignoring the bedlam: "You just school yourself not to listen. I have no worries. I have no money in the picture."

Producer Paul Jones, who's also working with Bob Hope: "I have a feeling I'm due for an ulcer."

UNDER WESTERN SKIES
Joe Vitale, who played the Indian menace in "Son of Paleface," just wed non-professional Joan Tolins of San Francisco. . . . U-I's cameras are catching the beauty of Apple Valley for "Apache River." Most of the film is being shot there.

Mario Lanza no longer has an interest in the Mar-Sam tungsten mine in which he invested his movie earnings. . . . Aldo Ray's annoyed at the snipers who insist that he's never seen his infant daughter. He spent time with the child in Crockett, Calif., two weeks ago and has reasonable right of visitation.

John Lowe, husband of Ruby Keeler, pulled through the crisis and is back in their San Fernando Valley home. He was seriously injured weeks ago in an automobile accident.

Mari Blanchard on marriage to movie lawyer Greg Bautzer: "I've known him for years and I think he's wonderful, but you know Greg, I'd like to see someone nail him down to marriage, but I don't think I can."

WESTBROOK PEGLER

VA Has Built Up Tremendous Bureaucracy Which Is "Obviously Parasitic," Pegler Declares

(Copyright, 1949, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

It goes without saying that men and women who have been wounded in our wars or injured or have incurred diseases while "under arms" in time of war, police action or that permanent "emergency" which is now firmly established, should receive free treatment for those difficulties and all complications ensuing therefrom. It is not advisable, however, to maintain special hospitals exclusively for all such patients. Some special hospitals are justified. But eminent doctors and civic statesmen of the laity who have argued in favor of greater absorption of this "practice" into the civilian hospital system have been abused for their courage and wisdom.

The Veterans Administration has built up a tremendous bureaucracy which is obviously parasitic. However, the citizen who states the facts invites scurrilous abuse. Much of it comes from racketeers who thrive by posing as protectors of helpless heroes against the gross ingratitude of men too mean to pay fair taxes to succor warriors who saved them from our foes. Then, too, some real wounded fighting men are likely to misinterpret the arguments. They may be induced to suspect that persons who are actually trying to serve the deserving veteran patients best, and prevent gold-bricks from soaking up taxes, have no motive but heartless greed.

The expansion of the system of government hospitals dealing in general "veterans' practice, including even obstetrics and gynecology for women who were wheeled into uniform without the slightest military excuse, is bad for the whole country. There is no reason why a young woman who served a hitch in the WACS or WAVES some years ago and is now married should have her babies at public expense on the veterans' basis.

The American Legion's "policy," as it has been explained to me, is that sick veterans, including former service girls who are having babies, should be admitted to veterans' "facilities," but should be required to pay if they can. But no strict test is made to prove whether they can pay. The result is that many who can pay, don't. These veterans no more deserve free treatment and hospital accommodation from the Veterans Administration than any other civilian suffering from the same trouble who never wore a uniform. I am discussing "non-service-connected" patients, of course.

We boast that we live under a government of laws and under our laws everyone does his duty in war. So the fact that a man or woman did not serve in the "armed forces" is no just reason to discriminate against him or her. There is no reason why that person should have to pay taxes to "hospitalize" a veteran for something unconnected with any military experience. If a young man ducks the draft, punish him according to the draft law. But don't put him under a permanent cloud as a sort of slacker by implying that he owes it to some bum who happens to be a "veteran" to keep him at ease for life because he is a drunkard.

Nowadays a drunkard who can show that he had a record of drunkenness under arms is supposed to owe his addiction to his military service. He became a drunkard in the line of duty so, whenever he ties a bag on and winds up on skid row, we must ship him to a special veterans' "facility" and pay him a daily cash allowance as a "patient" until he is cooled out and goes forth to do it again. In fact he needn't even show a service record of drunkenness. He may have become a souse after he got out.

It is sad that a veteran with, let us say, two children and a careworn wife, comes down of liver complaint which makes it necessary for him to go to a hospital. It is disastrous in many cases. But to give that man a veteran's preference and ignore the same plight of a non-service man with a similar family who tried to enlist but was turned down he was even then

Questions and Answers

Q—Why did the Japanese call their suicide planes Kamikaze or "divine wind?"
A—The Japanese gave the name to a typhoon which saved Japan from invasion by the Mongols in the 1200's. They revived the name in World War II in the hope that the Kamikaze spirit would once more save Japan.

Q—About how many persons are accidentally killed by firearms in the United States every year?
A—Approximately 2,400.

Q—Can milk snakes actually take milk from cows?
A—No.

Q—If a man could lift 500 pounds on the earth, how great a weight could he lift on the moon?
A—3,000 pounds.

Q—What is the most intelligent animal?
A—Chimpanzees.

against the law. Actually, the law provided only that this hospital should detach a doctor to attend members of Congress at the House of Congress. Ickes justified himself on the ground that the civilian hospitals were overcrowded and inferior. One reason was that too much money had been spent on unnecessary veterans' accommodations. It didn't occur to Ickes that he was no better than the patients who had to make those accommodations suffice.

The superintendent of the naval hospital absolutely refused to discuss the case or the laws pertaining to it.
I have been reading that Cordell Hull has been in the same hospital for three years, with a sitting room as well as his sickroom. I am sorry Mr. Hull is old and sick, but he has no legitimate right to these accommodations at public expense in the naval hospital or anywhere else. If I get sick, I pay, and I am not even allowed to deduct my expenses from my taxable income.

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

Operation Best Treatment For Cataracts of the Eyes

Although cataracts have been discussed in this column on several occasions, this eye condition becomes a matter of extreme importance to many thousands every year. It is almost undoubtedly becoming more and more common.

Mrs. G., for example, says, "I have bilateral cataracts, and am 60 years old, my vision is 20/60, and there seems to be no change that can be made in glasses that will help. Do you think I should be operated on?"

Now it is not possible to decide without direct examination, and without knowing all the facts, just when a cataract should be operated on, but the subject can be discussed in general terms. First, what is it?

A cataract involves that portion of the eye which serves as a lens. The lens is normally clear but becomes clouded in cataract and this produces a blurring of vision. Perhaps it can be explained best by comparing it with the lens of a camera. If a camera lens is not clean a picture taken with it will be blurred and "fuzzy."

How much fuzziness there is depends on the amount of cloudiness in the lens. If only part of the lens is involved, part of what is seen may be clear and part hazy.

If the whole lens is clouded, then all objects will be blurred.

A beginning cataract in which the clouding is slight is called "incipient." When the process of clouding has been completed it is called "ripe," or mature. Unfortunately, medical treatments—that is drugs that have so far been discovered—have not proved of value in dissolving material which clouds the lens, nor can they restore normal vision. Glasses, of course, also cannot remedy the situation.

VISION RESTORED

Operation is the best treatment for cataract. When the cataract is mature, it can be removed and full vision restored in uncomplicated cases. Surgery of the eye has been so much improved that it is sometimes possible to remove the lens with a cataract in it at early stages of development. There is no reason to believe that eyestrain leads to the development of cataract, though, of course, eyestrain should be avoided for other reasons. Heredity, and particularly increasing age, seem to have more to do with most cases of cataract than anything else.

RUTH MILLETT

Wanting Wife Well-Dressed Makes Man Overlook Bills

Overheard in an elevator of a woman's dress shop: "George complains regularly when the bill comes in but there's nothing he'd hate worse than being married to a frumpy, dowdy woman who didn't care about clothes."

Is George married to a selfish, self-centered woman? More likely he is married to a smart one who knows George, perhaps, even better than he knows himself.

The wife who knows she is married to a man who needs to feel proud of his wife's appearance isn't smart to scrimp and save on clothes in order to impress her husband with how undemanding she is and how economical she can be.

WOMEN SHOULD BE REASONABLY ECONOMICAL

That doesn't mean that such a wife should be blindly extravagant. But she does have to be enough of a realist to accept the fact that there may be some beefing over bills if she dresses the way her husband expects her to.

For often the man who admires well-dressed women and expects his own wife to look the part, is pretty unrealistic about the cost of women's clothes.

The wife who knows it is important for her to maintain her husband's pride in the way she looks will sometimes have to put up with his inability to accept the fact once and for all that, if he wants his wife to be well dressed, it is going to cost him money.

What's Right?

You are making out a guest list for a bride's shower you are having for a friend.

WRONG: Don't consider whether or not the guests you are considering are particular friends of the bride.

AAUW Christmas Tea, Program Is Event of Sunday

The American Association of University Women held a Christmas tea Sunday afternoon, Dec. 14, at the home of Mrs. C. K. Bush, Dixon State hospital. As the guests arrived, tea was served them and recordings of Christmas music were played.

After the tea Miss Ruth Bitter, chairman of the social studies committee, introduced the program, a series of short talks by three members of the hospital staff on the theme, "Helping Our Mentally Handicapped."

Mrs. Elsie Marselus, director of occupational therapy, told of the handwork done by many of the patients and showed some excellent and varied samples of some of it. Occupational therapy has a distinct purpose in assisting those who must live in an institution to adjust happily. It is often hard to find something for the patient to do in which he can succeed and success is very important to him. While they do use some new materials, of course, a great deal of the work makes use of old or worn-out materials such as nylon stockings, old gowns, scraps, or raveled sweaters and cotton socks. Much of their work, too, is the mending and repair of worn but useable material.

Mrs. Mae G. Edwards, school principal, told of some of the work in day and evening schools. The latter are for adults who come of their own accord because they feel a need and want to learn something. Day school is for the children who fall into three types; mentally deficient, trainable but not capable of attending the public schools; mentally handicapped, who can be educated and could be in public schools if there were separate, special classes; and a very few slow learners who could be in public school classes with a little extra help and training. They especially try to help the children to have normal, healthy outlets, learn how to plan and use leisure time, learn to behave so as to meet public approval and adjust to their community. Work must be too easy rather than too hard so the children have the much-needed feeling of success and of completing something.

Work of Volunteers

The director of volunteers, Mrs. Hazel Thompson, told of the work done by volunteers, a movement new in the state institutions of Illinois. Volunteers can do many things to help the patients; mending for them, teaching and leading folk-dancing, running canasta tournaments, taking them on shopping trips to town, and giving parties. The patients thrive on love and the evidence of it and enjoy a "little air from the outside."

AAUW members learned much of interest in the kind of work that is being done to help the patients at the state hospital.

Other members of the social studies committee besides Miss Bitter are Mrs. H. C. Reider, Miss Charlotte Delhart and Miss Edith Scholl.

Hostesses for the social hour with Mrs. Bush were Miss Mollie Duffy, Miss Nell Hall and Mrs. H. A. Smith.

MOTHERS STUDY CLUB

The Mothers Study club will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Virgil Wasson for a Christmas party. There will be a $50 gift exchange.

Perfume That Clings

Q.—Dear Penny: I adore perfume, but for some reason or other its fragrance just does not last on me. I have told several of my friends that I want a new perfume, but first I must find out about a lasting one.—Mrs. A. W.

A.—A particularly good idea for women who claim that perfume does not "stay with them" is a Liquid Skin Sachet. It smooths on the skin very easily, and lingers longer because of its sachet base. It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation than any other type of fragrance. Try this Houbigant Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only $1.85 plus tax at Villiger Drug Store.

OES Parlor Club Has Christmas Meeting, Dinner

OES Parlor club met Monday at the Dixon Masonic Temple with a 12:30 o'clock scramble dinner and Christmas gift exchange.

Following the business meeting cards were played with Mrs. Marjorie Ransom and Mrs. Mamie Sworn, bridge winners. Mrs. Ruth Crawford was a Canasta winner.

The next meeting will be Jan. 5.

South Dixon Teachers Have Holiday Party

The South Dixon Teachers Reading circle met recently at Loveland Community House with a scramble dinner and Christmas party. A feature was the Christmas grab bag. A yule theme graced the table.

Miss Jean Dulen, president, conducted the short business meeting. Dubs bridge was played.

The next meeting will be Jan. 13, at Loveland Community House.

Christmas Event At Hill School

The pupils of the Hill School will present their Christmas program at 7:45 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 18, at the school.

All parents and friends of the children are cordially invited to attend.

Palmyra Unit Has Christmas Salads At December Meet

Christmas molded salads were the highlight of the scramble dinner when the Palmyra Home Bureau unit met recently at the home of Mrs. Robert Straw.

Twenty-one members and four guests were interested in the major lesson, "Deep Fat Frying" as presented by Mrs. Sam Seavey and Mrs. Wayne Friedrichs. Samples of doughnuts and cheese croquettes provided a tasty snack following the lesson.

Handmade gifts which were exchanged at the Christmas party included boxes of cookies, candy, crocheted aprons, evergreen Christmas card holders, african-violets and other goodies.

Amoma Party

The Amoma class Christmas party will be held at 7:30 p.m. today at the First Baptist church. Those attending are reminded to bring a $50 grab bag gift, a Pal Sister gift and either canned fruit or vegetable for the Christmas basket the class will give to a needy family.

Zion Club

Zion Household Science club will meet Thursday, Dec. 18, at the home of Mrs. Glen Gilbert. There will be a 12:30 o'clock scramble dinner and roll call will be "A Christmas Verse."

There will also be a $50 gift exchange and members not attending are asked to get their gift to the hostess for the exchange.

Cub Pack 324

Loveland School Cub Pack 324 will have its December Pack meeting and Christmas party at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 17, at Loveland Community House. All families of cub scouts are invited.

There will be a $25 grab bag exchange for all children. Each child is asked to bring a gift if he expects to receive one from the grab bag.

Annual Christmas Party Of Wa-Tan-Ye Held at H. M. Phillips Home

This year members of the Wa-Tan-Ye club were invited to the home of Mrs. H. M. Phillips, 318 East Bradshaw st., Sunday afternoon for their annual Christmas party. The Phillips' home was attractively and festively decorated for the occasion.

It is almost traditional for all members of the club to attend the Christmas party if it is at all possible, and this year was no exception with 36 present.

One of the high-lights of the Yule party each season is the revealing of the heart-sisters of the year. Each member brings her Christmas gift for her heart-sister to the party, and includes her name with it. The many unique and colorfully decorated packages added to the Christmas decorations. Heart-sisters for the coming year were concealed in little snow men which were given as favors.

Enjoy Supper

A delicious supper was served at the close of the afternoon by Mrs. Phillips, and the following hostesses: Miss Gail George, Mrs. Howard Hall, Mrs. Edward Hill, and Mrs. Dorrance Thompson. Much planning and work on the part of the hostesses made the event a delightful success.

Miss Wilma McCune of Moline, a former member of the Dixon club, was an out-of-town guest.

Lay Keel For Big Flat-Top

NEW YORK (AP)—The Navy officially marked the beginning today of its second 60,000-ton carrier-assemblying it with the hope Congress will permit building of still others, powered by atomic engines.

Secretary of the Navy Kimball expressed that hope in an address prepared for the ceremonial keel laying of the big flat-top Saratoga, a sister ship of the USS Forrestal which has been building since last July.

"We need to build at least one a year until we have a total of 16," Kimball said in the ceremony at the Navy's Brooklyn yard, where the keel plate of the Saratoga awaited his signature to signal formal start of work on the ship.

"The Saratoga will be much like her sister ship Forrestal in everything except speed:

"Overall length 1,040 feet; 252 feet wide; displacement (presumably without full fuel and plane load) slightly under 60,000 tons; plane capacity of more than 100 aircraft, depending upon the types used at any one time.

"But boilers with higher steam pressure probably will make the Saratoga faster than the prototype Forrestal.

"The Navy estimates the Saratoga's cost at $209,700,000, about eight millions under that of the Forrestal.

"The new Saratoga is being built to the requisites of an atomic age; the world's first atomic depth charge sank her namesake. That was in atomic tests at Bikini Lagoon in 1946.

"The new USS Saratoga is the eighth of a line of Navy ships named for the Revolutionary War battle in upstate New York.

Republicans To Organize State Senate

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(AP)—Republican state senators meet here today for an early start on organizing for the 1953 session of the Illinois Legislature.

The pre-session caucus was expected to pick Walker Butler of Chicago as Senate majority leader, a key legislative job along with that of House speaker.

Butler, 54, has served in the Senate since 1942 and was majority whip at the 1949 and 1951 sessions. As majority leader, he would have an important role in handling legislation sought by the new Republican state administration.

Republicans will control both branches of the Assembly at the six months session opening Jan. 7. They have majorities of 38 to 12 in the Senate and 88 to 67 in the House.

Planned for reappointment as chairman of the Committee on Committees is Senator Everett R. Peters of St. Joseph. This committee picks the chairmen and members of the Senate standing committees.

House Republicans will hold their caucus Jan. 6 at which they are expected to rename Warren L. Wood of Plainfield as speaker.

Actor Is Sued

NEW YORK (AP)—Actor Peter Lorre, 48, was sued for separation Monday by his 34-year-old wife Ingeborg.

Mrs. Lorre, known on the stage as Kaaren Vern, asked for $250 a week temporary alimony. They were married in 1945.

Adlai Not Demo Boss: Kefauver

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.), whose bid for the Democratic presidential nomination fell short, said today he recognizes Gov. Adlai Stevenson as the party's nominal head—but with no authority "to dictate or determine party policy."

Kefauver told a reporter he will recommend that the Democrats rely heavily on their national committee to chart policy with the aid of a special new committee of some sort.

Of Stevenson, who headed off Kefauver's front-running bid for the party nomination and then lost in the election, Kefauver had this to say:

"As a matter of custom, Gov. Stevenson as the defeated nominee is the titular head of the party."

"However, he has no right or in himself to dictate or determine party policy."

"But his views should carry a lot of weight in policy consultations."

Promise Fast Action on Pay Appeals

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Wage Stabilization Committee, organized to keep the wage controls program going, has promised fast action on 12,000 pay increases awaiting approval.

"We will make every effort to get the maximum number of cases out before Christmas," Chairman Charles C. Killingsworth said.

Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam formed the committee Monday after abandoning attempts to revitalize the wage Stabilization Board.

All seven industry members of the three-cornered board—the other members represented unions and the public—quit in protest against President Truman's approval of the coal miners' full wage boost.

Boycotted by industry, the board could not function, so Putnam set up the committee composed solely of the board's public members.

Dixonite Pays $100 Fine for Drunken Driving

James Alexander, 531 E. Chamberlin st., today pleaded guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated. He was fined $100 and costs by Judge Grover Gehant, Lee county court, and his driver's license was revoked for nine months.

Alexander was arrested Friday night by Dixon police when he drove his car on the North Western railroad tracks from Nachusa avenue east to the front of the depot.

Arraigned yesterday before Gehant, Alexander claimed that he wasn't driving the car when arrested. However, police found him sitting in the car which was parked on the tracks.

Dixon Police Officers Smallwood and McCoy found an open bottle of liquor in his car.

Alexander was unable to raise a $1,000 bond. He engaged Attorney Albert Kennedy to give him legal advice.

The defendant found himself in further trouble Monday when his wife Georgia filed suit for divorce in the office of John O. Shaulis, circuit court clerk.

In the complaint, Mrs. Alexander charged her husband with excessive use of alcohol for more than two years.

She also claimed that he presented a danger to her life and liberty. In requesting the divorce, she also asked that her husband be enjoined from molesting her and from coming on the premises at 521 E. Chamberlin st.

She requested the custody of their one child, 2, and that adequate child support, alimony and attorney's fees be paid by her husband.

The Alexanders were married in Dixon on Nov. 3, 1948, and lived together until Dec. 13, 1952.

Free Father, Son in West Coast Killings

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Police have released a father and son who were questioned three days in connection with the $7,125 robbery slaying of grocer Gard Young and three children.

Wendell Hall, 49, was freed Monday at Fresno after lie detector tests. His 27-year-old son Travis was freed here shortly afterward.

The Halls were arrested Saturday after an anonymous informer told San Francisco police that two men had asked him to join them in a plot to rob a man named Young.

Inspector Michael Doherty said both men had excellent alibis for Oct. 10—the date Young, his two small daughters and a neighbor boy were slain near Chester, Calif.

Circulate Petitions for Dixon Township Election

Petitions for Dixon township offices are already in circulation, according to William Wickley, township clerk.

This is the first indication of political activity in preparation for the coming April primaries.

Sixteen township offices will be open next year. They include the offices of township clerk, assessor, five justices of the peace, four assistant supervisors, and five constables.

Four candidates for office are already working on petitions, all for justice of the peace posts. They are incumbents Sterling Schrock, Edwin W. Merrick, Ruth Leydig Merrick, and J. O. Shaulis, all attorneys.

January 1, 1953, is the first day petitions can be filed in order for candidates to have their names placed on the primary ballots.

Mid-February is the closing time for the filing of petitions.

Petitioners must have the signatures of not less than 5 per cent of the total vote of the last township election, and not more than 8 per cent, in order to qualify.

In accord with voting figures from the last election, petitioners now will have to get approximately 134 signatures. All petitioners must reside within the township.

Although there are five openings for justice of the peace, there are yet only four petitioners. Since the 1950 census, the number of positions open for assistant supervisor has increased from three to four in accordance with population increases.

U. S. Firm On Korean Truce Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—(AP)—The United States says flatly it won't compromise on the Korean prisoner issue and it sees no use pushing any more peace plans through the United Nations unless the Communists agree that POWs won't be forced to go home.

The State department took this determined stand Monday night in a stiffly worded communique. It also accused the Chinese Reds of rejecting peace in Korea when they turned down the General Assembly's plan for breaking the prisoner's deadlock that is holding up an armistice.

France and Britain also expressed deep regret that the Communists had closed the door on the U. N. peace proposals.

Judge Bracken Will Address Catholic Youth

Circuit Court Judge Robert Bracken will be the featured speaker at a meeting of the Catholic Youth of Dixon at St. Anne's church, Wednesday, 7:30 p.m.

Bracken, extremely interested in the so-called problems of our modern youth will speak on the subject, "Our Mythical Youth Problem."

According to Judge Bracken, the "problems" of the youth of today are caused primarily by a lack of proper respect for the parents.

It has been said that the ills of our youngsters stem from the lack of facilities through which they can expend their energies.

Bracken contends that the problem does not stop there, that there is more to it than meets the eye. He intends to elaborate on these contentions Wednesday night.

Sabres Bag Four MIGs In Dog Fight

SEOUL (AP)—Allied Sabre jet pilots destroyed at least four Communist MIG-15 jets in a series of high altitude dogfights over North Korea today, the fifth Air Force announced.

Allied pilots also were credited with damaging one MIG and probably destroying another. The Air Force said it was investigating a claim that still another MIG was destroyed.

The Air Force said a total of 27 Sabres and about 32 MIGs engaged in 13 separate dogfights. The battles raged from 45,000 feet down to 800 feet.

gave them a warning. State's Attorney Bales recommended that the boys' parents forbid them from driving for one year.

In his remarks to the court, Bales recommended that each of the defendants pay the maximum fine of $500 and costs with the warning that any future violation may cause the revocation of their license.

Carpentier Rejects Pay As Senator

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(AP)—State Sen. Charles F. Carpentier (R-East Moline) said today he expects to resign from the legislature early on Jan. 12, the day he is due to be sworn in as secretary of state.

Carpentier, who is midway in a four year Senate term, said he will not try to collect the $6,000 salary for the remainder of his Senate stint.

Senate and House members usually receive their pay for a two year legislative session in a lump sum at the start.

Carpentier said friends had suggested that he take the money and turn it over to a charity.

"There's no better charity than the taxpayers," he told a reporter. "Let them decide what to do with it."

Besides, he said, there was some question whether he legally could claim the Senate salary while occupying another state post.

Carpentier won a close contest from secretary of state from Edward J. Barrett, the Democratic incumbent, in the Nov. 4 election. He did not have to vacate his Senate seat to run. His salary as secretary of state will be $16,000 a year.

Pop at 93!

DES MOINES (AP)—Luis A. Carrizales, who is 93 years old, became a father for the 13th time when his wife, Mary, 25, gave birth to a daughter Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrizales have had five other children since their marriage in 1945. Carrizales, who is half Cherokee Indian and half Spanish, has seven children by two earlier marriages.

Carrizales still works regularly at a farm equipment firm. Each time the stork visits the Carrizales household he expresses surprise at the attendant publicity.

Negro May Be Candidate For 'Oscar'

HOLLYWOOD—The Academy Awards race is still months away but it looks now as if a Negro—for the first time in history—is in strong contention for the top actress award.

Ethel Waters, recreating the role she made famous on the stage in "Member of the Wedding," is the possibility.

The contest among the women shapes up as one of the most interesting in years.

Shirley Booth in "Come Back, Little Sheba," Julie Harris in "Member of the Wedding" and Joan Crawford in "Sudden Fear," plus Miss Waters, are the most talked of women performances. Folks in the industry will nominate five for final voting.

For Miss Booth and Miss Harris, their first movies are recreations of roles that gained them many laurels on Broadway.

Miss Crawford stands an excellent chance to cop her second Academy Award. Her win in 1945 for "Mildred Pierce" is regarded as the most popular award in the history of the presentations.

Miss Waters, recreating a stage role, steals "Member of the Wedding" even from such a highly touted actress as Julie Harris.

Hollywood Variety, the trade paper, agrees with this reporter's opinion. Comments the Variety reviewer:

"Ethel Waters is splendid as the Negro cook, giving the film almost its sole touches of human warmth and understandable emotion."

The late Hattie McDaniel was the only Negro to win an Academy Award. She won it in 1939 as best supporting actress for her role in "Gone With the Wind."

Pacific Pact To Be Talked By Eisenhower

NEW YORK—Questions relating to the Pacific Defense Alliance in which the United States is a partner, come before President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower today when he meets with the Prime Minister of New Zealand, Sidney Holland.

Holland has been in London for a conference on the alliance with Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

It is composed now of three nations, the United States, Australia and New Zealand. However, observers saw indications—in a communique issued by the British Foreign Office Monday—that Britain may be included in the arrangement. It has been called "the NATO of the Pacific."

The New Zealand Prime Minister is on Eisenhower's appointment list for this afternoon. Leslie K.

Munro, New Zealand ambassador to this country, is scheduled to accompany him.

56 Hospitalized Vets Will Spend Yuletide at Home

WASHINGTON—Fifty-six servicemen and women—blinded, paralyzed or amputees—are having the GI's dream come true: Flying home for Christmas.

It's called Operation Santa Claus by the Military Air Transport Service, carrying out the mission for the sixth straight year.

MATS says the 56 represent all service personnel hospitalized in the United States in the three categories who were qualified, physically able and desirous of going home for 30 days.

Nine are blind, 34 are paraplegics and 13 are amputees. Twenty are being accompanied by medical attendants. Most homeward trips due for completion Jan. 20.

Author of New Novel Is Dead

DECATUR, Ill.—Mrs. Madeleine Babcock Smith, author of the popular novel, "The Lemon Jelly Cake," died Monday night. She was 65.

Mrs. Smith's book was released by Little, Brown and Co. Aug. 4 this year. It ran as a serial in Women's Day, the A & P magazine, before its issue as a book.

The book for which a heavy Midwestern sale was reported, was semi-autobiographical. It dealt with life in a small Illinois town.

Mrs. Smith, a native of Rochester, Ill., lived in Springfield, Ill., from 1898 to 1918, and then moved to Decatur.

State Sen. Elbert D. Smith of Decatur, the Republican member from the 28th district, is her only son. Two daughters also survive: Mrs. James W. Moore of Decatur and Mrs. George Schroyer of Evanston.

Britain has universal military conscription for a two-year period.

First WACS Get Duty in Korea

TOKYO—The first two Wacs to get regular assignments in Korea since the Korean War began will leave this week for duty at Gen. James A. Van Fleet's Eighth Army headquarters, the Army announced today.

The Wacs, now in Tokyo, are M. Sgt. Carolyn H. James of Miami, Fla., and Cpl. Louise M. Farrell of Billings, Mont.

Another WAC, M. Sgt. Esther M.

Erickson, 1312 W. Olive St., Bloomington, Ill., now assigned to UN Army Forces, Far East, in Tokyo, last spring became the first enlisted member of the Women's Army Corps to serve in Korea, but she was there on only 30 days temporary duty at Pusan to compile a telephone directory for the military forces.

Veterans to Get Fourth Dividend on Insurance

WASHINGTON—Another dividend will be paid next year to about five million veterans holding National Service Life Insurance policies, the Veterans Administration said today.

The first payments will be made in February. The size of the individual dividends for most policyholders will be the same as this year's dividend, with the vast majority of men getting a flat $60.

The dividend is the second regular one on NSLI policies—the first was paid this year—and will total 180 million dollars. Two special dividends also have been paid. The four total nearly four billion dollars.

Payments to individual policyholders, the V. A. said, will be made from 30 to 40 days after the anniversary date of the policy. That's the date the policy first went into effect.

To be eligible, the policyholder must have paid premiums for any three or more months between the anniversary date of his policy in 1952 and the same date in 1953.

The method of payment will be the same as this year unless the policyholder informs the V. A. he wants to be paid differently, by writing to the V. A. office to which he pays premiums.

If he holds a term policy, he can get the dividend in cash or he may tell the V. A. to apply it as advance premiums to his policy. If he has a permanent plan policy, he has these choices or he may ask the V. A. to put the dividend on deposit. That way it

Wife Talked and Talked for Record But Divorce Denied

SWANSEA, Wales (U.P.)—A Cardiff photographer lived up things in Divorce Court with a 45-minute recording of his wife's nagging—made on a tape recorder hidden in a bureau drawer—but all it got him was a bill for 100 pounds ($200) in court costs.

Justice A. Davies admitted it was "a remarkable piece of evidence" but declined to accept the 45 minutes as typical of any substantial part of the married life of John Hedley Robinson.

"The husband was hardly able to get in a word edgewise," said Justice Davies, commenting on the record. "If he did open his mouth, he was told to shut up and listen. There is no doubt that the record gave a remarkable example of the force, vigor and venom with which Mrs. Robinson was addressing her husband."

"It is equally true that the one or two observations the husband did manage to get in would have served to pour oil on flames rather than on troubled waters."

The court observed that the recording of the oral attack was made for the purpose of getting evidence for the divorce action and added:

"He had made up his mind to leave his wife and by implication expressed preference for a younger woman. The wife was afraid she was going to lose her home and was concerned for the husband's business and the welfare of her two daughters, aged 8 and 2."

The judge dismissed Robinson's petition for a divorce on grounds of mental cruelty and ordered him to pay the 100 pounds in costs.

City Can Lay Sewer, She Won't Shoot!

WINTER PARK, Fla. (U.P.)—City workers can go ahead and lay their sewer.

Mrs. E. J. Humpfer won't shoot—that is, if the city keeps its promise that there won't be any dirt piled on her lawn and that none of her shrubbery will be injured.

With that settlement Monday, Mrs. Humpfer announced, "I won my point and now I put up my shotgun."

She had patrolled the lawn of her $31,000 home for a week, threatening to shoot the heels off any city employee daring to set foot on her property.

A group of workers was persuaded not to move a load of dirt dumped on the city-owned parkway in front of her home.

Mrs. Humpfer said when declaring peace: "I have watched the careless property destruction caused by the laying of this sewer line and I was only prepared to protect what was mine. We have had this sewer line pushed ruthlessly down our throats by city officials."

Her street doesn't need sewers, she said, because everyone there has septic tanks.

The surface of the Indian Ocean sometimes has a temperature of 86 degrees Fahrenheit.

Ike 34th President; Prior Counts False

WASHINGTON—(U.P.)—Dwight D. Eisenhower, says the committee in charge of inauguration festivities, will be the 34th president of the U. S.

Grover Cleveland served two terms separated by four years, so Eisenhower will be the 33rd man to be president. Government reference books list President Truman as the 33rd president, but the official program for his inauguration in 1949 called him the 32nd.

Chairman Joseph C. McGarraghy of the Eisenhower-Nixon Inaugural Committee said Sunday the Jan. 20 program will list Eisenhower as the 34th president. "Thus correcting the erroneous count."

SYMBOLIC YULE TREE—Entitled "The Christmas Tree," the painting depicted above won the $2000 first prize in an international competition to select new works of Christmas art, which was held by a greeting card concern. Artist Anton Re-fregier of Woodstock, N. Y., says that the painting depicts "The Tree of Life," and that it is symbolic of "Christmas and peace on Earth."

Business Will Spend Record Expansion Sum

WASHINGTON—A—Two government agencies estimate business will spend a record amount of its earnings for expansion and improvement during the last quarter of 1962 and the first quarter of 1963.

The Department of Commerce's office of business economics and the Securities and Exchange Commission, in a combined report Monday said:

U. S. business will invest 7 1/2 billion dollars in new plant and equipment in the October-December period of 1962, 6 1/2 billions in the January-March period of 1963. These are new highs, seasonally adjusted.

Quad-City Papers Publish Despite Printers' Strike

MOLINE, Ill.—A—The Davenport, Ia., Democrat, one of four newspapers in the Tri-Cities area struck by AFL printers, published 16 pages today, 10 less than its normal complement.

The Democrat, the Moline Dispatch, the Rock Island, Ill. Argus and the Davenport Times, were struck Monday by the AFL International Typographical Union.

Publishers of the four newspapers and union spokesmen said the issues did not involve wages, but new equipment and the selection of a fifth member of a disputes committee.

All Publish

The Dispatch, Argus and Times, all afternoon papers, published 10 to 16 page editions — about half their normal sizes — Monday after the strike was called.

Managing Editor Henry Hook of the morning Democrat said that "with a few more days practice" the paper's supervisory personnel will be getting out "an even larger edition."

"As it is we've got a pretty good paper out with lots of fresh news in it," he said.

In a joint statement, the publishers said the dispute involves:

"1. Union insistence on the right of veto on any new process of typesetting and on any new composing room machinery or equipment.

"2. The question of 'outside tape' for Teletypesetter machines. By 'outside tape' is meant news copy of origin outside the local office.

"3. Selection of a fifth member of the joint standing committee of four members to settle disputes arising out of the contract. The union rejected a proposal by the publishers that the fifth member be named by judges of the 14th Illinois and Seventh Iowa judicial circuits."

Explains Stand

Harold Clark of Indianapolis, Ind., a vice president of the union, said the union does not object to the handling of the 'outside' wire service tape as a matter of policy.

"Under the contract which expired in October, there was an agreement that union members would handle only 'inside tape', that it — tape which is perforated on the newspaper premises," Clark said.

"The publishers, more or less arbitrarily, put in teletypesetter news service last January. The union took the position that the contract had been violated, and the

Arrest Pair For Hijacking Liquor Truck

ST. LOUIS—A—Federal and St. Louis authorities made two arrests Monday in the November 10 hijacking of a $50,000 whisky shipment.

Arrested were M. E. (Pete) Von Behren, operator of a suburban Wellston salvage firm, and an unidentified Von Behren employee.

Von Behren, arrested by the FBI, was charged with possession of merchandise stolen in interstate commerce. His employee was held by St. Louis County authorities without charge.

The $50,000 whisky shipment, totaling 625 cases, was seized by authorities Sunday in a raid on the salvage firm. Von Behren told the FBI the liquor was moved in by a man named "Russo" who had rented a portion of Von Behren's office space.

The whisky was stolen by three men who overpowered the driver of a truck carrying the load to Wichita, Kan. The hijacking occurred in St. Louis County.

Authorities also are investigating the theft of a $30,000 whisky shipment in St. Louis last Saturday. The hijacked truck was found abandoned on a St. Louis street with only 23 cases remaining from an 800-case cargo.
